

Reading Ambassador Application 2026

What does a Reading Ambassador do?

A Reading Ambassador will help with maintaining the library, reading shed (front playground) and the book fair, where necessary. They will also help in the library once every two weeks for 15 minutes during lunch time.

Their responsibilities will include:

- Open and close the reading shed located on the front playground.
- Scan books in and out of the library.
- Attend meetings with staff to discuss how to promote reading within the school.
- Promote the love of reading around the school.

Who should be a Reading Ambassador?

A Reading Ambassador should love books and enjoy sharing stories with others. They should set a positive example by reading regularly and encouraging classmates to read more. A Reading Ambassador should be kind, enthusiastic, and confident when speaking to groups or helping children younger or older than them choose books. Also, they should be forward thinking, always coming up with new and creative ideas to make reading fun for everyone.

If you think you are right for this very important role, please draw a poster, or write a paragraph, describing what your favourite book is and why. Include why you think you will make a good reading ambassador for the school.

Please be ready to deliver your presentation to your class week beginning 28th September 2026.
