Handwriting at HSN

Dear Parent / Carer,

At Hampton Infant School and Nursery we use the handwriting scheme called “Letter-join” which is taught every day across Year 1 and Year 2. We began using this scheme last year and have seen really positive progress with children developing fluency with their handwriting.

The children begin by developing the pre-cursive patterns and shapes alongside strengthening fine and gross motor skills and correct pencil grip as a foundation to cursive handwriting, through a combination of practical lessons and written lessons. Children are then introduced to forming the letters of the alphabet in a progressive manner, starting with ‘long ladder letters’ and building up to more complex letter shapes, and moving on to words and sentences. Handwriting lessons will also reinforce their GPS (Grammar, Punctuation and Spelling) learning and their formation of capital letters, punctuation marks and numbers. Our focus is improving the children’s motor skills, pencil grip and letter formation. We expect children to be writing in a cursive script in their independent writing when they are ready which can vary for each child.

The focus for the Early Years children in the Autumn and now the Spring term is on strengthening muscles in the hand and developing a strong core to help support mark making. Children take part in “Funky Fingers” every day to support this development. Children rehearse non-cursive letter formation daily after watching the teacher model how to form each letter correctly. There will be activities in the classroom and garden to promote physical development and improve stamina and strength ready for writing. When the children demonstrate they are ready, the Reception teachers will introduce the children to pre-cursive patterns and shapes in class.

Handwriting practise:

Can you practise the "Circles and Spirals" and "Lines and Diagonals" patterns at home?

The Letter-join scheme allows children to practise their handwriting skills at home. Please see the next page for details on how to log in to Letter-join at home on a desktop PC, laptop or tablet. You can explore the Letter-join resources on the website but also see tasks set by class teachers that will link to what the children have been practising in school. The website will allow children to practise tracing patterns, shapes, letters and words on a touch screen, but you can also print worksheets and resources at home as well. When you log in, look out for a home learning task set by your class teacher which will pop up as you log in. These home learning tasks will change every half term. We would like the children to practise at home a minimum of 3 times per week but practising as often as possible will really support your child’s development of the physical skills needed for writing.

We know the children enjoy Letter-join at school and would like them to have the opportunity to practise their skills at home as well.

Yours Sincerely

Eleanor Dayton
