

What is the main aim of the Parent Support Advisor?

The main aim of the service is to help parents to:

- Support and improve parenting skills
- Improve school attendance
- Improve punctuality
- Support parents in understanding and engaging with children's learning and development
- Provide access to wider support services

As a Parent Support Advisor I will always

Karen Finnegan

Parent Support Advisor

kfinnegan@hpp.school
Mobile :07471234544

Parent Support Advisor

Information for Parents & Carers

Working together to support family & school life.

What does your Parent Support Advisor do?

Your parent Support Advisor is here to offer help, support, guidance and a listening ear to parents of school children.

The service can support you with:

- Parental and family concerns
- School lateness and attendance
- Positive parenting and behaviour management strategies
- Transition through schools
- Sleep routines
- Healthy eating and Nutrition
- Benefits and housing
- Family routines
- Signposting to local and national support services for families

How do they do it? How do they provide support?

Parent Support Advisors give support to families in many different ways including:

- One to one contact via meetings within school.
- Telephone, text and email.
- Support in referring onto other or more appropriate services.

When might you need to contact your Parent Support Advisor?

I need help getting my children to school on time

I have a question about parenting.

I would just like to talk to someone

I need help and I don't know what to do

I am really worried about money but don't know if I can access benefits

I am struggling with my child's behaviour

Sometimes life can be challenging and parenting can be difficult.

Your Parent Support Advisor is here to help.